

Strangers Dining Room, Parliament House - Andrew McRae – Chef	About	Location	Product
Strangers Dining Room, Parliament House - Andrew McRae, Chef 	Andrew's work is an expression of his values and vision of bringing Queensland's food to Parliament. He delivered this vision in an ethical and creative way resulting in the introduction of a menu for Parliament House that showcases the best available, ethically produced and sourced fruit, vegetables, grains, eggs, seafood, meat and game in Queensland. Andrew boasts 80% of produce used in the kitchens Parliament house are from Queensland. Serving local food to our heads of State and their guests has many challenges including transparency and integrity; the ability to source the best quality produce; and applying innovation to create a memorable meal.	Strangers Dining Room, Queensland Parliamentary Services, George St, Brisbane. Andrew.McCrea@parliament.qld.gov.au https://www.parliament.qld.gov.au/explore/history/parliament-house/inside-parliament-house/strangers-dining-room	Living his values, Chef Andrew McRae approaches his sourcing, menu development and cooking in a way that promotes good, clean and fair food. He does this by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sourcing and using Queensland produce • Responsible sourcing – using food produced ethically, respectfully and not using seafood/game that are endangered e.g. swordfish • Working with and serving cuts of meat and vegetables that are often thrown away • Showcasing heirloom varieties of vegetables and meats • Foraging.